Senior Systems Analyst

Hiring organization
AccessCorp

Employment Type
Full-time, Contractor

Beginning of employment
August 5, 2025

Duration of employment
Contract 12 months

Industry
Canadian Government

Job Location
Ottawa

Working Hours
37.5 per week

Base Salary
$ TBD

Date posted
July 4, 2025

Description

We are looking to contract the services of a Senior Systems Analyst to assist in the detailed analysis, development, testing and maintenance of solutions in support of a large government project. Must have a valid security clearance at minimum Reliability.

Responsibilities

Tasks

Tasks and deliverables include but are not limited to:

- Participating in all aspects of systems design, analysis and implementation of a large legacy System and/or development projects;
- Convert a large legacy Java Swing desktop application into a modern scalable z web application;
- Develop Restful service APIs in Java and possess a strong knowledge with J2EE, EJB, XML;
- Design and develop Angular components across the web platform;
- Analyzing and participating in the creation and gathering of business requirements;
- Contribute to process improvements, design and implementation strategies to aid in a timely delivery of a web application.
- Adhering to quality assurance standards in each phase of development and performing checks on their own work as well as the work of others.
- Performing unit, regression, integration, end-to-end, and performance testing as required;
- Performing independent verification and validation of software applications and systems function and performance;
- Attending project / team meetings and briefings to articulate the proposed design or changes in a manner that makes sense to staff or to reach an understanding and/or solution to related problems and issues;
- Supporting and using the selected agency methodologies and best practices;
- Supporting systems in test and production environments; performing complex problem resolution/debugging;
- Preparing the system for releases (production and lower states) and coordinating all changes with impacted partners; and